Rochester Defeated.

Outbatted and outfielded, the University of Rochester was defeated on our Campus Tuesday of this week by a score of 10 to 2. The day was somewhat cloudy and good, snappy playing was handicapped by a cold wind. The Varsity, without a doubt, has recovered from its apparent slump and succeeded in demonstrating its ability. After the fourth inning the game never was in doubt. Haven was in excellent form and his support was faultless. White backed him up in every way and continually encouraged him. Clark appeared for the first time this season in the infield and did credit to himself. Smith, in left, was always sure, but was weak at bat. Aside from the fourth inning the game was intensely interesting, the men usually going out in one-two-three order.

Munger, Rochester's first baseman, was the star hitter of the visitors. In four times at bat he secured as many singles, and made the only scores for his team. Captain Sullivan was the best catcher of the league last year, and has a good chance to keep up his record this season.

Hamilton's first run was earned in the opening inning on LeMunyan's hit, a stolen base and an out at first. In the fourth Harrington, the visitors' pitcher, was unmercifully pounded, six singles and an error netting us five runs. Two more were added in the fifth on two singles and a fielder's choice, and our last tallies came in the seventh on Grant's error, a bad throw by Sullivan, a long fly and Haggerson's two-base hit. This was the longest hit of the game.

Rochester scored first in the second on Munger's single, which was too hot for Brown to handle, an out at first and Lawless' single. Another, and the last, was run in in the fourth by a double, a stolen base and a long fly. After this Rochester seldom reached second.

Judson relieved LeMunyan in center field at the opening of the sixth inning. Although he had but one chance, his throw to the plate in the eighth was the best that has been seen on the Campus this year. Haggerson, LeMunyan and White excelled at the bat for Hamilton. The score:

Interscholastic Program.

The long talked of Interscholastic Day has arrived, and for the sixth time in as many years Hamilton gives over all of her regular exercises in honor of the college men to be. The idea of having such an event here is to give men from surrounding schools an opportunity to see the College and to learn something of the ideals for which we strive here at Hamilton.

The morning will be devoted to looking over the campus and cultivating that "at home" feeling which springs up so easily on this Hill.

At twelve o'clock the prize-speaking contest takes place in the College Chapel. The following schools have entered contestants:

Boonville—W. Earl Ward.
Canandaigua—Frank T. Antes.
Cazenovia Seminary—Wm. M. Fourd.
Elmira Free Academy—Leo Smith.
Herkimer—James O'Donnell.
Ilion—Edward O'Brien.
Kingston—John T. Loughvan.
Utica Free Academy—Lawrence Roberts.

Vernon—Millard D. Mason.

Yonkers—Benn Barber.

At 2:30 p. m., on Steuben Field, the Interscholastic Track Meet will begin. Teams representing the following schools will compete for honors: Johnstown High School, Utica Free Academy, Binghamton High School, Little Falls High School, Walton High School, Gouverneur, Batavia, Ogdensburg, Clinton, Gloversville.

The Hamilton Interscholastic records at present stand as given below. Here's hoping someone will succeed in breaking some of them:

100 yard Dash—Young, Colgate Academy, 10 1-5 seconds.

220-yard Dash—Wood, Potsdam Normal, 23 2-5 seconds.

440-yard Dash—Taylor, Union, 56 1-5 seconds.

888-yard Dash—Newell, Potsdam Normal, 2 minutes, 10 3-5 seconds.

One-mile Run—Grannis, Syracuse, 5 minutes, 3 3-5 seconds.

Two-mile Run—Esmay, Utica, 11 minutes, 7 1-5 seconds.

120-yard Hurdle—Brownell, Potsdam Normal, 17 4-5 seconds.

220-yard Hurdle—Greeno, Colgate Academy, 28 1-5 seconds.

Shot Put—Sherman, Mount Vernon, 44 feet, 1 inch (12-pound shot).

Hammer Throw—Horr, Colgate Academy, 143 feet.

Broad Jump—Blumer, Syracuse, 20 feet, 3 1-3 inches.

High Jump—Banus, Jenners, 5 feet, 2 inches.

Pole Vault—Robb, Gouverneur, 9 feet, 8 inches.

Half-mile Bicycle—Young, Walton, 1 minute, 20 seconds.

Commons Hall is the "Mecca" for the evening. At 7:45 the fellows will gather around the tables and after light refreshments have been served the medals and prizes will be conferred upon the lucky men. Speeches by members of the faculty, stunts by the College funny men, and a good old Hamilton sing will put an end to the events of the day.

The committee in charge is Drummond, '06; Sicard, '06; Scoon, '07; Henderson, '08.

The officials for the Interscholastic Track Meet this afternoon are as follows: Referee, Mr. Harry T. Watson, Williams, '05; Clerk of the Course, Roosa, '06; Timers, Prof. White, '07, Bramley, '06, and Kuolt, '07; Track Judges, Prof. Wood, MacDonald, '06, and Grossmeyer, '07; Field Judges, Nellis, '06, Bloyer, '06, Schwartz, '07, Ferris, '06, Carroll, '06, and Peck, '07; Inspectors, Montgomery, '07, Day, '07, and Gordon, '07; Scorers, Purdy, '06, Maynard, '06, and Rood, '07; Assistant Clerks, Felt, Getman, A. F. Osborn and Stone, '08.

Tennis.

In spite of the poor tennis weather during the past week most of the first matches have been played and one second. There still remain seven firsts which were to have been played before Wednesday night, but on account of the weather the contestants were given a short time of grace.

Of the new men, Conklin, who hitherto has not been tried, has made a fine showing, and from the looks of his game is liable to give some of the old men a scare.

Since our last issue the following sets have been decided: Spedick, '06, defeated Benedict, '06, 8-6, 6-3; Hemenway, '07, defeated Saunders, '09, 6-2, 6-2; Day, '07, defeated Pratt, '08, 6-1, 6-0; Aron, '09, defeated McDonald, '06, by default; Love, '09, defeated Holley, '08, by default; Sherman, '06, defeated Miller, '06, 6-0, 6-0; Roseboom, '08, defeated Joralemon, '08, 6-0, 6-1; Marriott, '09, defeated Lyon, '08; Bramley, '06, defeated Allen, '08, and the following were won by default: Rood won from Truax, '09; Fitch, '08, from Mansfield, '07; Leavenworth, '09, from Peck, '07; Felt, '09, from Schwartz, '07; Dunwell, '08, from Gordon, '07; Kinney, '06, from Bright, '07; Osborn, '09, from Haggerson, '08. In the second round, Kinney, '06, defeated Roseboom, '08, 6-4, 6-3.

With the return of good weather all the sets should be finished up in quick order.

The Union Game.

The result of the Union game last week was in general a disappointment to the coach and the College. The team went to Schenectady prepared to play ball, but they failed to do it. They did not go up in the air, but they exhibited no team play and failed utterly to get together as they did in the Rochester game. For example, in the first inning the men got four hits, but no one scored on account of poor coaching at third and other like causes. Then Union came to the bat and two infield errors formed with a hit or two a combination which let in four runs. The game then went two innings without either team scoring, but in the fourth we batted in two runs. Then the only luck exhibited in the game showed itself. Rider, who struck out every other time he was at bat, came up with two men out and the bases full. He had two strikes and three balls called on him when he drove out a clean two-bagger which scored three runs. One more run ended Union's scoring for this inning. Both teams scored one in the sixth and Union scored again in the seventh. Hamilton ended the scoring by a run in the eighth inning.

It might be said with a considerable show of truth that the team was the victim of circumstances and that Union was mainly in luck. We secured eleven hits to their nine and barring the unlucky first inning played just as fast ball. The lucky hit of Rider's and bad coaching on bases really lost us the game. The rest of it was clean and snappy and played in just as good style as that of the opposing team. Mr. Glenn, of the General Electric Works, acted as umpire. The score by innings:

Union,	4	0	0	4	0	0	1	0	—9
Hamilton,	0	0	0	2	1	0	0	1	0—4

Sigma Phi Informal.

The Sigma Phi Society held their Spring Informal at their hall on Thursday evening. The guests were: Miss Louise Day, Miss Laura Day, Miss Bessie Hunter, Miss Susan Johnston, Miss Helen Winant, of Utica; Miss Katharine H. Truax, of New York; Miss Elizabeth Ogden, of New Hartford; Miss Marion Dodge, of Oneida; Miss Ruth Ethridge, Rome; and Miss Evelyn Stryker, Miss Ray Quisenberry and Miss Laura Root, of Clinton. Mrs. Oren Root, Mrs. Thomas F. Nicholls and Miss Moore, of Clinton, and Mrs. W. J. Johnston, of Utica, acted as patronesses. Rath, of Utica, furnished the music for the evening.

Freshmen Lose to Rome.

By ones and twos the weary stragglers of the Freshman Baseball Team wended their way up the Hill Wednesday night. Leaving Clinton at 1:15 and undergoing the usual discomforts of the trolley ride, they arrived at Rome about 3 o'clock. Here they took the role of lightning change artists and in less than fifteen minutes they were dressed and on their way to the field. After the usual preliminary practice Rome took the field and the Freshmen went to the bat. In the first inning Rome started things going and at the end of the third they had tallied 13 runs to none for the Freshmen. Here McGarry went into the box and Stone to right field. With a change of pitchers the Freshmen seemed to take heart and Rome was retired in one-two-three order, McGarry striking out and one being caught trying to steal second. From then on things went better, Rome getting but one more run while the Freshmen scored seven. A fine drizzle had started early in the game and kept up all the afternoon, making a very poor day for baseball.

All the team needs now is a little practice together and then they will be ready for the Colgate Freshman game, to be held on the Steuben Field in a few weeks.

The Freshman lineup was as follows: Mangus, r. f., ss.; Plumb, 2 b.; Felt, c.; Hopkins, 3 b.; McGarry, ss., p.; Hatfield, l. f.; Worden, c. f.; Getman, 1 b.; Stone, p. and f.

Vol. VIII. SATURDAY, MAY. 12, 1906. No. 29.

FOR THE COLLEGE, LIFE EXTENDS a hearty welcome to all visitors on the Hill today. We deem it a privilege to entertain these representatives from the most important High Schools in the state. It is a rare and pleasurable occasion for us as well as for them, and we are glad that so many are able to be with us and to taste our hospitality.

For several years past Interacademic Day has been a grand success both for Hamilton and her visitors. Today should be no exception. On the contrary it should even exceed those of past years, for never before have more complete arrangements been made by the committee in charge. More than any other this day offers an opportunity for Hamilton to show herself to sub-freshmen and to prove that there is no better place to go to college than Hamilton.

IT WAS HIGHLY DEPLORING to note that some college men were playing tennis while the Rochester game was in progress last Tuesday afternoon. This same thing happened once or twice last year and was severely censured through the columns of LIFE.

A man with average sense, and even lukewarm spirit, ought to appreciate that the team needs his support. To say the least, it is a pretty cheap act on the part of any student to ignore an important game while the rest of the College is standing by the team and trying to help it win. If you have not got enough Hamilton spirit to attend the games do not start an opposition at the other end of Campus. It looks bad.

EVERYTHING ABOUT THE GAME last Tuesday with Rochester was very gratifying. The team seemed to have struck its pace. It showed us just what kind of ball it can play. Everyone was exceedingly pleased with the whole exhibition and went away from the field proud of the team and coach. From now on there should be more confidence, both among the players and the Student in general. We know that the team can play a strong game of ball, and it is for us to back them up in good style during the rest of the season. The cheering at the game Saturday was of the best. It was organized, consistent and well led—just the kind that helps materially to win a ball game. There should be just such active interest taken in every other game on the Campus this spring. Buy a season ticket and attend the games, prepared to help the team win by hard cheering.

Interclass Meet.

With everything auspicious for the spring interclass games, except a high wind which blew across Steuben Field to the discomfiture of spectators, the annual field meet was run off on Thursday afternoon. Although there was a piping breeze all the afternoon the events were all run off except the hurdles, which refused to be coaxed into a standing position even by the gentle Henderson and his rout of assistant assistants. With the hurdles undecided, the outcome of the meet was a splendid victory for 1906, who scored thirty-seven points. The order of succession followed the classes, the juniors being second with 26 1-3, sophomores third with 18 1-3, and the freshmen last with 17 1-3. With only one point separating the under classes, the outcome of the hurdles will be an important factor. The time for the various events will be announced later.

The one hundred yard dash was easy work for Sicard, who ran it in good time. Ferris, MacDonald, Hull and Roenke qualified for the finals in three heats. Although Roenke won his heat in good form, he got a false start in the final and did not finish. The race for second place was nip and tuck between Ferris and Hull, the first winning out by a narrow margin. In the shot put Grossmeyer won in easy manner, with Cody second and Hoyt third. The 880-yard run was a clean cut victory for Grossmeyer, who set a fast pace against the wind and finished fresh. Mansfield was an easy second. Thompson won the hammer throw easily, and toyed with the weight in a way that means business with a little better form. The 220-yard dash had only three entries and was run off in slow time. Meeker walked away with the mile run, finishing fifty yards ahead of his nearest follower. There was a lively race for second place between Bullion and Osborne. Osborne, after a little tete-a-tete at elbowing with Gordon on the turn, finally got into second place and finished there, although Bullion pushed him hard. The high jump was a bit of a surprise, as Carroll won it easily, and managed to clear 5 feet 2 inches, which is practically his first attempt this season. Bagg, Hull and Blodget tied at five one, and after a vain attempt to jump it off split up the points. The 440 was the prettiest run of the afternoon. McLean, '08, hit off at a fast clip and led to the second grandstand. Bramley then pushed into the lead and, with Spencer, bunched things up for first place. McLean suffered from too fast a pace, and Spencer and Bramley took the lead on the stretch and, after a pretty finish, Bramley clinched first honors. Spencer ran a fine race and gives promise of becoming a strong man in his event.

The broad jump was won by Ferris with a jump just shy of twenty feet. Hull was a close second and Peck landed third honors. The two mile run was done in good time, Smith and Montgomery running close together until the last lap, when Smith got into his old warhorse stride and let her whoop into the stretch, finishing way in the van, with Montgomery second and Joralemon a still more distant third. Leavenworth did nice work in the pole vault and got first place easily. Scoon and Stone tied for second honors and each showed up in good form, giving Hamiton a strong contingent in this event.

The largest point winners for the meet were Sicard and Grossmeyer, each with two firsts; Ferris with 8 points, Hull 5 1-3 points, and McLean, '08, with four.

The officials and summaries follow:

Referee, Prof. White; starter, Holley, '08; track judges, Prof. Wood, Purdy, '06, French, '06; field judges (weights), E. M. Clark, '07, G. C. Clark, '07, J. D. —The Senior class held a meeting after morning chapel on Thursday. The plan of having the banquet at Bagg's Hotel in Utica was reconsidered and it was decided to hold it at Stanwix Hall, Rome. A tax of ten dollars was levied to cover the debt incurred in the publishing of last year's Hamiltonian. On Edgerton's resigning from the office of class historian for Class Day, Benedict was substituted in his place.

College Notes.

—The standing of the Freshmen for the first four issues of the spring competition for the two vacant places on the LIFE Board is as follows: Osborne, Rifembark, McLean, Hopkins, Gooding, Busfield. This list in the above order represents the quantity of work done. Irregularity detracts from each competitor's standing 150 words for every week that nothing is handed in. As for quality, the better it is the more copy is printed.

—Love, '09, spent last Sunday at his home in Albany.

—The Seniors have put in their orders for Commencement invitations and programs.

—"Prex" attended the graduating exercises at Auburn Theological Seminary this week.

—Miller, '06, and Jerome, '07, attended the convention of Psi Upsilon last week at Hartford, Conn.

—The Hamilton Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi will hold a spring "informal" next Tuesday evening.

—Thompson, '06, threw the hammer 125 ft. 9 in. last Friday morning in practice. A record breaker.

—The Freshmen cancelled their game with Ilion for Friday, because of the 'Varsity game on the Hill.

—Sicard, '06, is to coach the athletic teams and teach French at Peekskill Military Academy next fall.

—Drummond, Ferris and LeMunyan, '06, visited Conklin Mann, '06, last Sunday, at his home at Ballston Spa.

—The "Job Lots" were defeated by Utica Free Academy last Saturday to the tune of 20-1. It was a big fall.

—The Freshmen attended the Orpheum Saturday afternoon in a body, and aided the performers in various wags.

—Rather a singular incident in the appointment of the Freshman prize stab speakers is that they are in the classical course.

—"Nick" Holmes, in endeavoring to strengthen his debate last week, said it was a well known fact that too many hands in the broth spoil it. "Prex" corrected him and said that too many broths spoil the cook.

—Griffis is the only Freshman left in "Square's" triangle competition. It will be a great honor if he solves them all correctly.

—Encouraging reports are still heard from the Hamiltonian. Canvass for its sale has already begun. The price this year is $1.50.

—G. C. Clark and Masee, '07, attended the district convention of the Delta Upsilon Fraternity at Cornell last Friday and Saturday.

Fitch, '06, is spending today at Peekskill Military Academy where he expects to get the position as teacher of Physics and Mathematics.

—The "Job Lots" have arranged for two games with Waterville, a return game with U. F. A. and two games with Clinton High School.

—The pet phrases, "ball tuh," and "stand on your base and stretch," used by the umpire of the game with Rochester, caused much excitement.

—On account of the muddy condition of the field, the Freshman-Clinton High School game which was scheduled for Saturday was postponed till some later date.

—A tax of 45 cents per man was imposed upon the Freshman class this last week for the Hamiltonian inserts and the entire amount was collected in one day. This hardly has a precedent.

—The Freshman Frolic committee has held several meetings and promises a good dance. Arrangements are well under way. White, of Utica, has been engaged to furnish the music.

—The first illustrated lecture on Palestine, given by Prof. Morrill at the Stone Church Sunday night, was well attended and was very interesting. He lectures tomorrow night on the Life of Christ.

—A special meeting of the Y. M. C. A. on Wednesday evening was addressed by J. S. Stafford, a graduate of Yale, on the work of the Northfield convention. Three Hamilton men have, thus far, decided to attend the convention this June.

—The new entrance requirements of one year's French in the Latin-Scientific course is causing more or less difficulty to next year's Freshman class. "Bill Shep" is to have a special class for those entering with a condition in this requirement.

—The New Cripple Club, consisting of Gilbert, '07, McCarthy, McMartin, Williams and Holmes, '08, and their latest acquisition, Holley, '08, gathered in front of Carnegie Monday afternoon for their first picture. Proofs will be out in about a week.

✓—"Madame" Kelly wishes to thank the student body for the patronage so generously accorded her during her life on the Hill. She desires to say that she leaves her home among us with the deepest affection for the College, and wishes it the best of success, now and ever.

—There is such a thing as overdoing what is called coaching from the sidelines. A reasonable amount of effervescent enthusiasm is a good thing on the part of the "fans," but it is unsportsmanlike, if intentional, and out of place, if unintentional, to coach an opposing catcher as to his ability to connect with a foul fly.

—A needed innovation would be the changing of the name of "Job Lots" to some more dignified title. Not that the "J. B." aggregation is affected with an over amount of dignity, but they play really good ball, and it is time they were more seriously recognized. Why not dub them the "Hamilton Second Team?" The are richly deserving of the title.

—With the leading spirits of the Freshman class bottled up in D. T. and properly corked, a thought suggests itself to your worthy scribe. One Roenke, who not many weeks since took an evening plunge into the silvery depths of the fountain as the result of his mania for dropping waterlogged paper bags out of Carnegie, now appears corked with all due ceremony, and labeled "Extra Dry." Is this the irony of fate?

—That there is a budding genius of the brush and palette in our midst even "Wardie" concedes. The occasion of this admission was a series of crayon illustrations, depicting scenes in the life of one Horace, which adorned the blackboard in Language Hall. Some precious youth conceived the notion of illustrating Ode XIII, which it will be found upon consulting the Hinds & Noble library, deals with a pestiferous tree which had the audacity to fall while the ancient bard was reading love ditties "under the shade of the old apple tree." The first scene in the series portrayed the poet passive, the second the tree active, and the third—well, words fail us. The tree was down, Horace was up. His gesture was significant, even if it savored of anachronism, for we greatly fear that this common mimic expression of disgust has a more recent origin than the days of B. C. 31.

Football Next Fall.

With all the discussion of the new rules which have lately been passed by the Rules Committee, thoughts of our prospects for a winning team next year naturally come to mind. The College knows only too well the condition of the squad, minus the 1906 delegation. They take with them eleven men, leaving only four regular positions filled. The men left are Schwartz, '07, tackle, Sweetman, '07, guard, Holley, '08, quarterback, and White, '08, sub-end. Moore, ex-'09, who played such an excellent game last fall, will re-enter College next year. Whether or not he will play football is an open question. Haggerson expects to enter the Law School at Michigan next year, so the team will lose him along with the 1906 delegation. For so late in the season the captain has heard of remarkably few sub-Freshmen who can play football. While we do not believe in offering inducements to a man to cause him to come to a college, we see no harm in trying to persuade him a little in his choice, by enumerating the advantages of Hamilton over other similar colleges. Sub-Freshmen must be scarce or our work must have been done poorly, for up to date only five possibilities as football players have been heard of.

There were not many men on the scrub last year who were of 'varsity calibre, and the scrub therefore does not furnish a very extensive lease of supplies. However, the captain thinks that there are more men in College who can play football, or could with a little training. Consequently he hopes for and expects that every man who can hold a football will be out for practice when the candidates are called out for spring practice. The fellows must get out, or we will have an apology for a team, because new positions are to be filled and the men drilled in them, and such drill comes only from hard practice against the scrub.

The management has been very fortunate in securing for next season the services of Mr. Morris S. Halliday, Cornell, '06. Mr. Halliday entered here in the class of 1906 and stayed part of Freshman year. After leaving on account of the scarlet fever scare, he went to his home in Ithaca and entered Cornell in the class of 1906. That he knows football and is an expert player, is attested by the fact that he has played for three years on Cornell's team at both halfback and tackle. That he has played these two difficult positions equally well proves his ability and versatility. The squad and College will miss Mr. Watson next fall and feel his loss keenly, but he is too expensive a man for us. He deserves and demands more than we can afford, hence we must take a substitute. Coming after a succession of good coaches Mr. Halliday will have a difficult position to fill. From his past achievements we believe that he can fill it.

No schedule can be announced as yet, owing to the fact that two important games are as yet in the air. The dates offered by the different Managers conflict badly at the present. However, a speedy settlement of the difficulty is looked for, and the final dates will no doubt be fixed within a few days.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The Mission Study Class began last Sunday after chapel with an attendance of 20. The meeting was an interesting one and the book is very instructive. The Seniors are especially invited, as this is their last chance.

On May 21st the Association will give a social to the faculty and College. It will begin at 7:45 p. m. and we will have some good speeches, songs and eatables. The affair will be very informal and a prominent feature will be college songs. A thoroughly enjoyable evening is promised by the committee, whose chairman is Hemenway, '07.

The Association has had many applications for men for the summer and some permanent positions. The president will be glad to give all the information at his disposal to anybody or to look up new places.

The following are the Cabinet for this year: Bible Study, Trippe, '07; Missionary, C. H. Allen, '07; Religious Meetings, Day, '07; Membership, Gordon, '07; Finance, Bate, '08; Music, Fitch, '08; Social, Hemenway, '07; Vicinity Work, Meeker, '07; Systematic Giving, Kellogg, '08.
